HOMICIDE AT A BALL.

Great Excitement.

The little hamlet or German settlement alled Hamburg, within the city limits, was, on Saturday night, the seene of a ball and a homicide. Onc of our German itizens, whose name has not transpired, living on Howard street, between the New Sleeping Car "Jeffersonville," has our burg and Bardstown turnpikes, gave ball at his house, which was crowded, and the evening passed off happily to all till about eleven o'clock. At this hour Chas Schneider and two of the young ladies went down the hill to the pump for fresh water. While there a party, composed of Jue Bowman, Weatherly, and two others came up to the house, and a disturbance ensued immediately, and the appearances were favorable to a terrible disturbance Hearing the excitement, the two young adies ran to the house, Schneider following them. As he approached the house he recognized Weatherly in the moonlight, and being acquainted with him, as it ap pears, stepped up and begged him not to go to fighting or raising any disturbance there. Another man named Miller, observing that Weatherly had a stone in hi chimney at Sedgwick's saloon, in Third hand, went up to him and remonstrated with him, and succeeded in taking away the stone, which fell to the ground. At this juncture of the disturbance Bowman struck with a large knife Schneider. Miller was

Cin. cinuati is convinced of this, and is making an effort to control that trade, investing ten millions, when, hitherto, she has never nvested one cent. St. Louis has her eyes open, and is stretching out her hands to grasp the prize. Chicago is making a rush for all she can grasp. Memphis and Evansville are following hard in the wake of the others. Another Good Samarltan. A couple from the interior, as green as green can be, but who loved each other well enough to run away from their cruel parents, arrived here one day last week. The girl was under age and there was no possible way to get the murriage knot tied. It was suggested to the man that he could get the business done in Indiana and thither the pair journeyed. But they discovered that it cost more money than they had to obtain the necessary documents, and they couldn't get credit. In this emergency they returned and went ack to the hotel where they had stopped on Broadway, and the lover bewailing his misfortune, told his story. Several persons laughed but didn't help him, but one generous fellow swore that a runaway couple should not want for a few dollars to make them happy, and furnished him vith the stamps. Deputy Marshal Summons a Jury of Loyal Men - Wherenpon Judge Trigg Reads Him a Lesson.

From the Knoxxille Press and Herald. An incident of interest to the public ocarred in the United States Court room on Wednesday morning. The case of Atkins Williams, a suit for damages, being alled, Col. Baxter, counsel for the de fendant, objected to a part of the jury which had been specially summoned to try the case pending, stating that he had received information that the United States Deputy Marshal had summoned a special jury, some of whom were parties

Colonel Baxter asked for Mr. Mitch. Childress to be sworn, he being one of the regular empaneled jurymen. Colonel Baxter asked Childress if he had not had conversation with the plaintiff, in which he had told him that now was the time to oring his case up for trial, as they had now got the right sort of a jury. Childress said that he had made a remark to Atkins to the effect that a good jury had been summoned, and he thought it would be a good opportunity to have the case tried. Deputy Marshal, McCreary, was also sworn, and stated in reply to ques-tions which were asked by Colonel Baxter, that he had endeavored to summon loyal men, and considered that Radicals were good Union men. Judge Trigg told the deputy that he hoped this would be the last time that an occasion of this kind would take place.

The special jury was dismissed and vagrand jury.

A BRAVE WOMAN.

An Illinois Lady Kills a Wild Cat With a Pitchfork, From the Apple River III. Index, Aug. 9.

We learn that Mrs. Eliza Colver, a widw lady living about three and a half miles south of this village, a week ago last Sun-day night, killed an immense wild cat. The circumstances, as we get them, are as ollows: For two or three nights preced Sunday, the family noticed the house dog had kept up a other case in the hospital, a private great noise just back of the garden, but no particular attention was paid to him unti the night in question, when, from the dog's excessive demonstrations, the lady termined to investigate the cause, of the She went to the place from whence the barking proceeded, and discov ered something jumping from tree to tree, but in the darkness could not distinguish what it was. BASE BALL.

From the Philadeiphia Telegraph. The drum sticks were failing times and as round the house a youth there pust, who bore a drum and smiling face, And beat and shouted, "My first base!" "Base-ball!" The drum sticks were failing thick and fast,

II. The noon-day snn was pouring down Upon a meadow sere and brown, Where stood a youth with bat on high; Loud to his contrades rang the cry, "Pase-bail?"

He hopes to win himself a name, By playing soon "a great match game;" For him 'twill be the greatest fun To hear the words "Live Oaks have wor." "Base-ball!"

His brow was bumped, his eye was black, His coat was torn from off his back; But still, I ke battered bugle rung. The accents of that swollen tongue, "Base-ball!"

Around the field he saw the light Of friendly faces beaming bright; Just by his head a ball has flown, Aud from his lips escapes a groun, "Ease-ball!"

VI. "Now stop the game," the ol 1 man said,
"The "second-base" has smashed his head
The 'pitcher,' too, has sprained his wrist,
The 'umpire's' brain is in a mist." "Base bail!"

"Oh, drop that ball!" the maiden said,
"And make a long 'home run' Instead.
A "hot bail" hit him in the eye,
But still ne auswered with a sigh,
"Base-bail!"

VIII. "Beware! you'll soon be out on foui!" This was the fielder's awful how!; But still re-ectoed in his ear, In that deep voice so thick and queer, "Base-bail"

"Used up," he sank upon the ground, While pitying contrades gathered round, And in the awful threes of death He murmured with his latest breath, "Base-ball"

There on the cold earth, drear and gray, To perfect jelly mashed, he lay, While o'er the summer fields afar Was heard the victor's loud linzza, "Base-bail!"

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at ouce agreeable, healthy and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

CUBA.

Savagery on the Increase—A Coming Reign of Terror. Havana Correspondence N. Y. Times, 14th.

The contest now going on in this island s fast approaching the point of savageism or which all Spanish wars have been noted, and the Cubans seem to be determined to stop at nothing short of independence, even though such independence be accomplished at the ruin-thorough and complete-of the island they inhabit. The moment has approached when the timid can no longer take refuge in a declaration of neutrality and seemingly pas-ive indifference. The line of demarkan is becoming traced so distinctly by he hostile factions that it is impos-sible to mistuke it, and both parties have adopted the motto, "Who is not with me is against me." The adoption of this line of policy will have the effect of forcing into the ranks of either party that immense force known as "doubtfuls," who have kept aloof thus for from any many particles. have kept aloof thus far from any partici-pation in the contest. The Cubaus who have heretofore contented themselves with sympathizing with the revolution, will now be forced to take an active part in it, ither for or against. The recent descent made by the secret police of the government, who swarm broughout the whole island, has really llarmed the little knots and clubs of Cuoans scattered throughout the city, and a Richardson, Texteeling is becoming prevalent among them that the era of a new reign of terror will JStylman, do Mrs Swing, do hortly be inaugurated.

This was so remarkable that two gentlemen standing at the corner of two gentlemen standing at the corner of the cor one of our streets, who saw the meteor on ts first appearance, marked the time in order to see how long the vapors would remain visible. Just three and a half minates after the bursting of the meteor there was an explosion of such londness as to be heard by thousands, and shuking houses ike the pulsations of un earthquake. The sound of the explosion was like the muttled roar of a great shell, which, falling, buries tself many feet in the earth and then ex plodes, or like a heavy subteranean blast. carefully made by displacement, without the use of heat, from the best Buchu leaves, comblned with Parcira Brava, Juniper Berries and Cubebs, and is offered to the public as a safe, sure and speedy cure for all derangements of the bladder, kidneys, &c.

The common method of extracting the properties of medicinal herbs, roots, &c., by heat, is now known in many cases to injure, If not entirely destroy, their efficacy. By careful displacement with the proper menstruum, I have avoided this error, and have here provided an extract so concentrated that the dose, though small, contains more of the properties and virtues of the drugs than other preparations of the same kind on the market. It contains all the virtues of the fresh Buchn leaves greatly increased in its efficacy by being combined with the other ingrecurative powers. Its good effects are immediate, and the patient is encouraged to persist in its use in chronic cases until a cure is effected.
